

"Money's Worth or Money Back"
Means a Dollar's Worth or Dollar Back.

Inaugurating Our Spring Season With the Best and Largest Stock of Man's Wearables Ever Assembled in Washington.

All the fashions sanctioned by the best dressers of America are represented here in the most complete and satisfying assemblage of "good clothes" ever exhibited at the nation's Capital. Every garment in this matchless showing is a brand-new idea—our own idea—a distinctive "Man's Store Make" creation—full of snap, character, and style. No clothes ever built are more worthy of your good opinion—no clothes, no matter what they cost, will show better fabrics, better workmanship, or better value. They drape gracefully; they are built to look right on live men. You don't have to fit the clothes, the clothes are made to fit you.

Our Principle is Always to Give You A Dollar's Worth or a Dollar Back.

You know that principle has been the guiding star of this successful business, and you know that it is not a mere empty platitude, but a guarantee that we are always ready to carry out under any and all circumstances. Ask any man who deals here.

TROOPERS ARE OFF ON LONG JOURNEY

Farewells Said as Thirteenth Cavalry Boards Train.

GOING TO THE PHILIPPINES

Soldiers Long Stationed at Fort Myer Ordered to Service in the Tropics—Mothers, Wives, and Sweethearts All at the Railroad Station—Horses to Be Left Behind.

Waving farewell to cheering companions and weeping mothers and sweethearts, four troops of the Thirteenth Cavalry, which have been stationed at Fort Myer for the past four years, left the Baltimore and Ohio freight station at 6 o'clock last night on their 6,000-mile journey to the Philippines, where they will probably remain for two years.

As the train pulled out the cavalrymen, in olive drab uniforms and campaign hats, crowded every window and platform of the ten coaches, watching for a last greeting from those they left behind, and until the last car passed out of sight the crowd at the station never separated.

Many Friends Present.

Every one of the 342 troopers seemed to have a friend or relative on the platform. Troops E, F, G, and H had been stationed at Fort Myer so long that they had made a host of friends in Washington, and many of the older noncommissioned officers had married and established homes here.

The wives of all the enlisted men were left at home.

The four troops, band, and twenty members of the hospital corps are under the command of Col. Charles A. P. Hatfield, with Capt. William H. Winters as adjutant and Lieut. Berkeley T. Merchant as quartermaster. Lieut. Henry T. Bull commands Troop E; Capt. Guy H. Preston, Troop F; Lieut. Leonard L. Deltrick, Troop G; and Lieut. Arthur G. Fisher, Troop H. Dr. Walter Fraser is the veterinarian.

Mrs. Hatfield, Mrs. Merchant, Mrs. Bull, and Mrs. Fraser left for San Francisco several days ago, and will join their husbands on the transport.

Train Is Special.

The train is a special and will go straight through to San Francisco, where the troops will embark on the transport Logan, which will sail for the Philippines on March 6. The other squadron will join the Fort Myer troops at San Francisco, and the entire Thirteenth Cavalry will be united and stationed at Camp McKinley, in the vicinity of Manila.

The mounts and horse equipment of the Thirteenth Cavalry have been transferred to the Fifteenth Cavalry. New mounts will be furnished the troops on their arrival in the Philippines.

Ever since the War Department general orders assigning the Thirteenth Cavalry to duty in the islands became known, four troops at Fort Myer have been given farewell banquets, hops, and other entertainments by their friends in the army. In the District National Guard, and in civil life.

The night before their departure a farewell hop was given in honor of the cavalry officers by their fellow-officers of the Fifteenth and the artillery at Fort Myer.

Forced to "Double Up."

As the troops of the Fifteenth returned from Cuba a short time before those of the Thirteenth left for the Philippines, the two commands were forced to "double up" in quarters at Fort Myer.

Will Make Pilgrimage.

An interesting series of events has been arranged for the regular quarterly meeting of the board of governors of the Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, to be held April 12 and 13 at the Arlington Hotel. Among them is an illustrated lecture by Miss Mary V. Worstell, of New York, on "The Signers of the Declaration of Independence," to which President and Mrs. Taft, members of the President's Cabinet, and those high in diplomatic and official life will be invited.

On the second day of the convention, which is the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, a pilgrimage will be made to Monticello.

A Profusion of Spring Flowers.

Violets, sweet peas, tulips, Shaffer, H&H.

Lessons in Lace Making.

Messrs. S. Kann, Sons & Co. have made arrangements with Rev. Michael O'Flanagan, of the Loughlynn Convent School of Industry Company, Roscommon, Ireland, to have three pupils of that school demonstrate the making of Irish lace in the store from March 1 to 12. Miss Mary O'Flanagan will make and explain Irish crochet lace, Miss Rose Donovan bobbins lace, and Miss Mary K. Donovan Carrickmacross lace. Father O'Flanagan and the young ladies are visiting America to interest the American people in the revival of hand-made laces of Ireland.
